THE YELLOW FEVER.

Jackson A Deserted City.—An Appeal to the Masons.—The New Orleans Physicians Dumbfounded.—The Relief Movement.

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 21.—The panic produced by the yellow fever is unparalleled. People are fleeing from the pestilence in every direction. Jackson is almost deserted, and business of all kinds suspended, and nothing is thought of except to escape from the scourge. The following appeal from the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Masons speaks for itself:

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 21, 1878.

To the Masonic Fraternity of the United States and Canada.

The Masons of Louisiana have sent an unexpected and unsolicited contribution of $300 to their distressed brethren in Mississippi. We shall be glad to receive and disburse contributions from the craft. The distress and destitution at Vicksburg, Grenada, and Canton is appalling. We are in hourly expectation of the pestilence in Jackson.

H. POWELL, Grand Secretary.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Aug. 21.—A Times Jackson, Mississippi, special says: "Fever reported at Byron and Terry. All towns near here are almost totally deserted. Nine cases at Canton with three deaths."

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 21.—A special to the Avalanche from W. J. Smith, Vice President of the Memphis Howard Association at Grenada, says: "Five per cent of the whole population have died. Seventy-five negroes were taken down to day. The New Orleans doctors are dumbfounded at the malignity of the disease." Mr. Smith adds: "Our efforts are paralyzed for want of proper remedies. We are short of medicines, ice, food, and in fact all kinds of necessaries for the sick."

NEW ORLEANS, August 21.—The Howard Association received the following telegram:

GRENADA, August 21.—The Relief Committee send for twenty nurses. I did not want to overcrowd you. They want flow and nurses. Assist to get them if you can. No abatement of fever.

B. F. ANDERSON.

GRENADA, August 21.—Seven deaths. The negroes are dropping down like sheep, and will not help each other. Ninety-two deaths to date.

W. R. MENDELVILLE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—The following dispatch from Grenada was received to-day: "Times here are awful. The fever is as bad as ever. Send money by express to pay nurses and bury the dead." The following persons have just died: Mrs. J. E. Hughes, Mrs. Maria Mole (the bishop's daughter), Dr. W. Williams, and Mrs. R. Coffman. Miss Kate Coffman died yesterday. Twelve others died yesterday.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Aug. 21.—It is estimated that there have been fifty new cases of fever for the past twenty-four hours, with twenty-four deaths. Twenty-two of the yellow fever. The appeals of the Howard Association and the Masonic order, for relief are being responded to from all directions.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 21.—This morning David Ferguson, President of the Clearing House, received a telegram from the Howard Association, of Vicksburg, Mississippi, asking if the bankers and people of this city could aid them, etc. Mr. Ferguson at once telegraphed the treasurer of the Howard Association to draw on him at sight for $500. In a short time the subscriptions reached $900, which it is expected will be increased to $1,200. The remainder of the money will be sent to Memphis and other cities. Through the exertions of Messrs. Elias Friend and David Adler, $300, in addition to the above, was collected from their Jewish brethren, and forwarded to the Hebrew Relief Association, of New Orleans. They have since raised a large amount, which will be sent to other points. Much sympathy is manifested for the stricken people of the State, and subscriptions are freely and quickly tendered.

given to mortal eyes to witness. It brought a sense of relief and delight, and no one who saw it can forget it.

There was one peculiar phenomenon of color connected with the approach and disappearance of the shadow of total obscuration which may, perhaps, have some scientific value, and be worthy of note. It was observed that along both lines of the shadow, and especially along its departing edge, there was a well defined strip of yellow color, shading off into orange and light red. This appearance was well defined, and bordered the dark lines like a fringe. These lines of color were noted by three or four persons, who all agree as to their appearance. Will some scientist tell us why they were there, and what they indicated?

A Disjointed Case.

As he sat there, strapped to a three-legged stool and with an old barrel organ before him grinding out "Oh! Susanna," he was an object of great pity. Both limbs were off above the knees, the right arm was missing above the elbow, half of the left ear was gone and the right eye in gloom. He was a house and a fatigued cap, besides a reduced pair of trousers, and, as he sat there, he stopped right in the middle of "Oh! Susanna" to wipe the sweat from his forehead, and in doing so showed that two fingers of the left hand were wanting. In front of the organ was a weather beaten placard with such names as "Chancellorville," "Lookout Mountain," "Fredericksburg," "Manassas," and a dozen other memorable fields. As the crowd stood gazing at him, Peter Parker, one of the oldest residents of the town, remarked: "Well, stranger, seems as though you'd served in service, eh? The veteran wiped his chin, took a piece of tobacco, and in opening his mouth to put it in showed that twenty-seven out of thirty-two teeth were gone somewhere or other. In fact, there wasn't much of the man left. In answer to old man Parker he replied: "You struck the nail on the head that time, pard, cause the facts are, I'm been buried in installments, and there'll be a lively time gittin' me together again on the gittin' up mornin'." That 'ere right leg, what used to fit on that stump is decently buried down at Culpepper Court House in a little grave just beyond the bars. The boys plant flowers on it every summer. The left leg which you see is gone, is down in old Virginia, near to Richmond, and has a tombstone over it, saying, 'Here lies Peter Jones' left leg, which he lost in the Seven Day's fight. Rejoiced in the fact. They put a little flag on it on decoration day. That 'ere right arm is preserved in alcohol in the army hospital at Washington, and them two fingers which is off is buried close to a big tree at Gettysburg, where an appropriate mark has been raised. I was down to see my little grave last fall, and was a-weepin' over 'em for some time. Them 'ere teeth is buried in Georgia, and I'm afraid nobly is takin' care of 'em; and that 'ere piece of ear was shot away 'n' nothin' at Old Oaks battlefield. You are lookin' at me eye you? Well, that's doin' good service. In a portrait in an Albany 'Sun'— His remarks were cut short by a plentiful supply of nickles droppin' in the tin cup, and the same organ ground out the rest of "Susanna."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

By order of Committee.

FIFTH WARD.

By order of Committee.

BRIEFLETS.

—Business better.
—Milwaukee has drawn the crowd.
—Few tramps and thieves, but look the doors just the same.

—The Monroe Cornet Band is to visit Janesville again September 4, to play for a picnic.

—Mrs. Beal, of this city, is to wake up the temperance cause in Monroe next Saturday and Sunday.

—The serenaders were abroad again last evening, and did not forget to visit the residences of the editors.

—Rev. A. L. Royce, rector of Christ church, has returned from his vacationing and will officiate as usual next Sabbath.

—Mrs. Hornick, of Oshkosh, who was for years a resident of this city, is visiting friends here, and is a guest of Mrs. A. C. Bates.

—The Janesville Guards met last night and drilled, but not with their rifles. They will probably commence with them at their next drill.

—Austin Cravath, of Whitewater, called upon us yesterday. He is a designer and engraver of wood, and is showing great ingenuity and skill in that line.

—Mr. Claude De Haven, press agent of the Great London Show, is in the city. He has been detained in Chicago with a serious illness, which lasted fortunately only a few days.

—Rev. E. D. Huntley, formerly of Court Street church, of this city, preached the sermon at the reopening of the Algoma Street Methodist church in Oshkosh, last Sunday, and raised $2,000 to pay off the church debt.

—Jack Griffin's wife was before Justice Prichard this morning charged with being a common drunkard, but was discharged there being no evidence to show that she deserved any such title. The charge seemed to have sprung from some family difficulty.

—Prof. Sinsbee desires to state that he is no puglist, and that he tried to avoid all dispute with the party who struck him, and that he did not term anyone a liar, but simply denied what he deemed a false accusation, whereupon he was struck. Spong pleaded guilty to the assault, and was fined $5 and costs.

—Mrs. Vankirk, whose strange death, supposed to be suicide, was chronicled in yesterday's Gazette, is an aunt of W. T. Vankirk of this city, and a sister of Mr. E. B. Richardson also of this city. The inquest has been postponed until next Saturday, when the full particulars of the sad and sudden death will be brought to light.

—Rev. Mr. Royce, during his vacation, visited Rev. Mr. Wallace, and his new parish in Waterloo, New York, and preached one Sunday for him. He reports Mr. Wallace as prospering in all ways. His people seem to appreciate what manner of man he is, and have kindly and enthusiastically rallied around him.

—A number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. Herman Buchholz last evening to witness the unfolding of two buds of a night-blooming cereus. The flowers carried out their part of the programme most successfully. They were of the fragrant variety and filled the air with the choicest fragrance. Mrs. Buchholz has a number more buds which it is expected will bloom during the coming month.

—It is suggested and apparently with some show of wisdom, that in view of the fact that the approach to the railroad crossing at Jackson street, is rather dangerous, that a flagman be stationed there to warn drivers and foot passengers. The little section horse at the end of the bridge could be moved to Jackson street, and one man could look after the crossing and attend the bridge also, with a little additional labor on his part, and with scarcely any additional expense to the railroad company.

—The soft maple trees are suffering badly from the raids of worms which are rapidly causing the leaves to wither. Owners are in some cases trimming off the limbs thus affected, but they are carelessly letting them lie on the ground instead of burning them up. It is suggested that smoking the trees with sulphur is a better plan to stop the ravages. It may be that the trees will not be seriously affected, and the injury may be confined to the foliage only. Tree-owners are rather alarmed at the present looks of the trees, though.

—We are in receipt of a postal from W. R. Whittall, giving a dozen pictorial representations, drawn skillfully with a pen, showing some of the pleasures of Minnesota, such as a harvest scene in the mud; one of the hurricanes; wheat going to bushels to the acre, and forty pounds to the bushel; showing the demand for sulphur and quinine; the raid of the grasshopper; other hints of the unpleasant features of portions of that state. The dozen pictures thus penned speak volumes, and contain more information than is sometimes found in a whole column of words.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 68 degrees above zero, and at 2 o'clock at 84 degrees above. Clear. One year ago to-day at corresponding hours the thermometer stood at 61 and 73 degrees above.

The indications today are for the upper lake regions clear weather, followed by increasing cloudiness, variable winds, mostly northeast to southeast, nearly stationary temperature with stationary or lower pressure.

A BAD RUNAWAY.

A serious runaway occurred this morning, which resulted in injuries to three persons, S. C. Burnham, his daughter, and Mrs. S. C. Burnham, his daughter-in-law. They were driving north on Jackson street, and were approaching the railroad track when the switch engine suddenly shot out from behind the elevator, and before they were aware of the close presence of the locomotive their horse was close upon it. The horse wheeled quickly, turned the buggy around, and in doing so threw all three out. Mr. Burnham and his daughter cleared the buggy, but Mrs. Clark Burnham was caught between the wheels and the buggy box and was dragged a short distance, when the horse became free from the vehicle and continued his post ride until he was stopped near the hospital. The three persons were taken into a neighboring house, and soon after removed to their own home. An examination of their injuries showed that no bones were broken, but all received more or less scratches and sprains. Strangely enough each had a wound near the eye. Mr. Burnham's being the most serious. He also suffered a severe wrench of the back. The two ladies were also somewhat bruised and lamed, but it is thought that they will speedily recover from their injuries. The escape was a narrow one. The approach to the railroad track at the point where the accident occurred is such that great care should be taken on the part of drivers and railroad employes, as it is difficult to see an approaching engine.

DISTURBING PARADES.

Yesterday the cases of George and John Roethinger Jr., were on trial before Justice Prichard. These young men were charged with having driven their team wagon into the Temple of Honor procession, causing havoc in the parade, and breaking up the lines of the Supreme Council. The charge of interfering with the procession was dismissed, as the Justice held that the law did not cover any such disturbance, and that it related only to assemblages gathered in some appointed place of meeting, and that the accused had as much right to the street as did the paraders. It appears that Captain Miles, who was one of the Marshals of the procession, caught the horses by the bits, and stopped them, and that George Roethinger struck him with the whip. A charge of assault was accordingly entered against George and he was fined $10 including costs. It appears from this decision that parties are not obliged to give way to parades of any kind, or funeral processions, and that such parades and processions have no more right upon the streets than other men or teams, being subject of course to the law governing common travel on the highways. If anyone in a parade or procession is interfered with by the injured person can of course seek legal remedy as an individual, just the same as if he was walking or driving by himself, independently of any organization. In some States the law has been so framed as to protect parades but as yet in this State, the law does not seem to cover such disturbances.

PARADE AND EXCURSION.

The first public parade of the Knights of Pythias took place last evening and was witnessed by scores of interested ones, who crowded along the line of march. The Bower City Band headed the procession, and presented a fine appearance, and discoursed as choice music as is ever to be heard upon the streets of this city. The Knights had a dashing appearance of military and gallantry. Their uniforms are elegant, and with plumed helmets, and bright blades, they attracted marked attention and many complimentary comments. The Lodge was organized here only four months ago, and it speaks well for the order, that in this short time it is able to present such a showing of strength. The parade pleased all who witnessed it. This morning the Bower City Band and the Knights of Pythias headed an excursion to Milwaukee. The train consisted of five passenger and one baggage coach, and every seat was occupied. Chairs and camp-stools filled the aisles, and every other available space, and still there was a demand for more room. The day being bright and pleasant there seems no reason why the excursionists should not have one of the most enjoyable of occasions.

STOLEN SILVER.

It seems now that sufficient evidence has been secured to send "Scratchy" Nash over the road. The silver-ware which was recovered in this city, and which he is charged with having sold, is now said to be a portion of a lot taken by burglars from Whitewater. There were three or more houses burglarized there lately, one being Mr. Holbrook's, another Mr. Rice's, and another Mr. Hemmingsway's. Some of the silver-ware captured is marked "Holbrook," and other pieces marked "Rice." Officer Fay, of Whitewater, is in the city now, and will probably take Nash back with him. All of the stolen property has not yet been recovered. Nash has several times escaped conviction on serious charges, but it seems now that the authorities have him "dead to rights."

A MAN FOUND DEAD.

At an early hour this morning the dead body of a young man was found lying in the rear of Waterman & Gordon's store in Beloit. The deceased was soon recognized as J. Howard. It is said that he has been somewhat given to drink, and is supposed that an over-indulgence in intoxicants was the cause of his death. He probably tumbled down upon the ground last night while staggering along there, and sunk into the sleep from which he will never be awakened. Such seems to be the general opinion as regards his death though a coroner's inquest and further investigation may bring new facts to light. No marks of violence were found on his person, and there seem to be no suspicion of any foul play.

BADLY SCALDED.

Mrs. George Ashley, who resides on Franklin street, near Bluff street, met with a serious accident yesterday. While engaged in her house work, the kitchen stove tumbled down, and she was badly scalded by the hot water from the kettles and from a clothes boiler. The stove was set up on blocks of wood, and it is supposed that one of the blocks became, in some way, displaced so that some light jolt caused the stove to topple over. Mrs. Ashley was at the time seated near the stove, and the scalding water was spilled over a large portion of her body, causing an extensive scald of the surface though the flesh was not injured to any great depth. Her sufferings were of course great, and the accident was a most serious one, but it is thought that she will speedily recover.

9 AGAINST 10.

That is the way the Mutuals had to play at Rockford yesterday, and of course got left—same clubs play in this city Saturday.

The Mutuals drove over to Rockford yesterday morning to tackle the Forest City again, and notwithstanding the long ride, they would have won the game but for outrageous decisions of the umpire, those who have acted in that capacity refusing to officiate on account of the crowd insisting that every decision of the umpire should be made in Rockford's favor. The Mutuals were short-handed as usual. Even so being unable to play on account of a fello, but they made up for this by excellent batting, every man in the nine getting a base hit, with a total of thirteen, which is immense, when the fine fielding of the Rockford's is taken into consideration, only one of the Mutuals getting first base on an error.

When our boys took the field in the 9th inning they were one ahead, and as the first two Rockford men to bat made out, it looked like a sure thing for Janesville, but right here the usual error occurred, putting a man on last, followed by a base hit and both men ran in on a foul fly to left, the crowd taking possession of the grounds. When order was restored the umpire dared not put the men back on bases for fear of the crowd and the game was deliberately stolen. The Rockford nine are gentlemen and took no part in these proceedings but it would be difficult for a League nine to win a game in that city unless they took their umpire with them.

The Rockford's make their last appearance here Saturday, and as they have the best record of any club in the Northwest it will surely be the best game of the season. The Mutuals will present a strong nine, and are confident of their ability to win the game with fair umpiring.

DAISY CUTTERS.

The Chicago defeated the Cincinnati yesterday by 7 to 4.

In yesterday's game between the Milwaukee and Boston the latter won by 4 to 3.

The Forest City, of Cleveland, yesterday defeated the Tecumseh by 11 to 8. At Buffalo yesterday the Buffalos scored 4 and the Uticas 1.

THE LONDON SHOW.

Wednesday, August 22, should be remembered as the date when Howe's Great London Circus and Menagerie will appear in this city. The Iowa State Register in speaking of this combination says:

The grand entree was a magnificent spectacle; the musical clowns amusing and novel, the lightning hurdle act of W. Gorman has never been equaled in Des Moines; the gymnastic exercises on the horse and bar by the Jungs Brothers and J. Murty are equal to anything of the kind performed in the United States; the juggling act on horseback, by Miss Pauline Lee, something entirely new and difficult, but performed with ease and grace by that lady; the double somersault act by Frank and Gamble over diving elephants and a camel, thrilling in its execution; the control of Mr. K. H. Dockrill over his trained horse almost a marvel; the riding of Madame Eliza Dockrill on four horses, an act that elicited general admiration and astonishment; the pyramidal performance of the five trained elephants carried out according to the cuts; the riding of James Robinson, unexcelled by anything ever attempted in this city; while the concluding acts, the performance of the Miranda Sisters on the double trapeze, was as beautiful as it was thrilling and difficult, these young ladies accomplishing feats of peculiar character which have hitherto been attempted only by the best-trained and most muscular of the other sex. The comic throughout was kept up by the amusing speeches and songs of the Irish clown, Fatter-on, by the bare-back riding monkeys, and by the peculiar entertainment of the French clown, Kennebel Brothers. There will be no contradiction, we think, when we say that the London Show is the best traveling, deservingly of the patronage of amusement goers. The manager and agents are first-class business men and gentlemen, the ladies and gentlemen of the ring artists of the highest merit, the accommodations and appointments hard to be improved on, and the satisfaction given universal with their patrons.

To Physicians.

We desire to call the attention of medical men to Dr. Price's Floral Riches, as being the finest cologne water made. In the sick room it is refreshing to the invalid, and a disinfectant. Physicians know that all pleasant odors are healthful, while disagreeable smells invite disease. Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes richly deserve to be called the best.

Beyond the Reach of Human Skill.

Is the power to restore the hair to bald heads when the bulbs at the roots are destroyed by age or disease; but there are doubtless many persons becoming bald, who, by careful attention, might be restored to their original luxuriance and beauty. Parker's Hair Balsam is an elegant preparation, designed to meet the public want for a harmless hair dressing and restorative. It acts like magic, commencing at the very roots, removes dandruff and all humors from the scalp, and never fails to restore gray or faded hair to the original color, and the soft, rich and glossy appearance of youth. By its occasional use falling of the hair is immediately checked, and a luxuriant and beautiful growth of young hair is induced. The exquisite perfume and the purity of its composition are highly appreciated, and as it is not a dye and does not stain the skin or clothing, it is a growing favorite of the toilet table everywhere. Dr. Swayne's All Healing Ointment is a pleasant sure cure.

HOME CURES.—We were great sufferers from Itching Piles, the symptoms were as above described; the use of Swayne's Ointment in a short time made a perfect cure.
